BIP BIP LE SATELLITE

AOC Lussac-Saint-Emilion - Red - 2022

LOCATION

The Lussac Saint-Emilion appellation is found to the north of the hill of Saint-Emilion. The first vineyard to be designated a World Heritage Site, the region is full of charm, with prestigious historic houses and Romanesque churches dominating its many hillsides. The vineyard is planted on hillsides, plateaux and at the foot of the slopes. The soil can be Perigord sand or clay-limestone, producing wines which can be enjoyed young as well as those designed for long ageing.

PRESENTATION

BIP-BIP le satellite prend de la hauteur et vous offre le meilleur des appellations satellites de St-Emilion : MONTAGNE, PUISSEGUIN et LUSSAC. Partez en orbite et découvrez le meilleur de nos appellations. Finement assemblées, ces trois cuvées ont été développées pour vous faire découvrir les spécificités de nos terroirs. Vignerons, caves et œnologues se sont mobilisées pour vous proposer un beau panorama de notre savoir-faire

WINEMAKING & AGEING

De-stemming and crushing of the harvest. Hot pre-fermentation extraction. The alcoholic fermentation, which lasts about 8 days, is carried out at controlled temperature with selected yeasts. Regular pumping over. Malolactic fermentation and maturation in stainless steel and concrete vats. The optimal date of harvest as well as the controlled extraction of the tannins allows us to obtain a wine with good substance and roundness.

VARIETALS

Merlot 71%, Cabernet sauvignon 22%, Cabernet franc 7%

FOOD PAIRINGS

Perfect with a spicy duck breast or a mushroom brushetta.

TASTING

This wine has a garnet-red colour with great intensity. Expressive and fruity, the nose presents pleasant notes of blackcurrant and blackberry. The palate is ample and round, carried by silky tannins.
